

Madame Martine

By Brannen, Sarah S.

Albert Whitman. 1 Cloth(s), 2014. hard. Book Condition: New. Living alone in Paris, Madame Martine takes the same walk and shops at the same stores every day. In this first book in a series for readers up to 7, Martine meets a stray dog, and realizing that this is the friend she needs, names him Max. Martine has never bothered to go up the Eiffel Tower, but when Max leads her on a chase to the top, the breathtaking view makes this dear lady realize that life holds many such surprises for those willing to look for them. Sarah Brannen's watercolor illustrations lend Paris a dreamlike glow, while giving Martine a childlike appeal."The exquisitely rendered watercolor illustrations are full of charm and expression, becoming more colorful and saturated as Martine's heart gets fuller. Enchanting."Kirkus Reviews 32.
