It is as follows: To the Democratic Party throughout the Union. Washington, January 1, 1852. A concentration of opinion from all the States, as far as practicable, upon some time and place for holding the next National Democratic Convention, is indispensable to the union and organization of the party for the presidential canvass of 1852. With this view the Democratic National Committee, consisting of one from each State, appointed by the Democratic National Convention of 1848, to promote the democratic cause, and with the power to fill vacancies, assembled in this city, in pursuance of a well-considered call for that purpose; at which meeting, on the 29th and 30th of December, 1851, and the 1st of January, 1852, the thirty-one States of the...
