Excerpt: . . . 11 only to one system, yet they can receive a full pension and a full Social Security benefit with no offset of any kind. Additionally, a public retirees entire pension is subject to Fed-eral income tax, including the part that is deemed equivalent to So-cial Security. Most Social Security benefits, however, are tax-free. To illustrate the devastating effects of the GPO, I would like to share some typical examples with you. Annette Williams is an AFSCME retiree member and a pensioner in the Los Angeles City Employees Retirement System, and Mary Ferreira, a retired city of Fremont employee who receives a CalPERS pension. Annette retired in 2003 from her job as a clerical worker em-ployed by the city of Los Angeles. She had never heard of the GPO and thought she would be able to collect a Social Security widows benefit based on the work record of her deceased husband. But she had a rude awakening. She found out that applying the GPOs two-thirds offset...
