Boys Without Daddies is a poem about the challenges faced by young men who grow up in fatherless homes. Hopeful and honest, Boys Without Daddies doesn't sugarcoat any of the obstacles faced by boys who attempt to understand masculinity without male role models but it doesn't seek to elicit pity either. Boys Without Daddies may reflect harder realities about modern family values, but it is ultimately a celebration of manhood and family. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
