Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. You will fall in love with Jake, a little bird left in the nest and struggling to overcome his fear of flying. His mother and two brothers have flown away and left him. He finds himself alone, heartbroken, and terrified that something awful will happen to him. Jake finds it hard to believe that his family has deserted him but soon loses all hope that his mommy or daddy will return to the nest to get him. It hurts him to think that his family has deserted him. It hurts him even more to think that he may never see them again. The nest has become his prison. Fear has locked him up. Overcoming his fear is not easy. When he finds the courage to try to fly, he falls down but refuses to allow the loss of his family, his broken heart, nor his fear to prevent him from trying to fly. He has no idea that he has some unknown help nearby. This is a heartwarming and inspirational story that children and adults will enjoy.
