Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 26 pages. Dimensions: 9.6in. x 6.7in. x 0.1in. Jacqueline Anderson-Hutchings grew up in Ferndale, Michigan in the 1940s and 1950s. This rural setting inspired her mother, Lois Evelyn Tolbert-Hutchings to water-color art and poetry. Jacqueline's inheritance of her mother's talents led her to begin drawing, oil-painting and portraits as early as pre-school. When Jacqueline was four years old her Mother entered one of her drawings in a local Newspaper contest for children and Jacqueline's drawing won first place. From there and Over the years Jacqueline has written several short stories but she felt that the Holy Spirit led her to write and publish A RAPTURE OF THE SAINTS, For Children. She was compelled to share with you Jesus soon returning to earth to rescue his church the details concerning Jesus returning to earth to rescue his church (adults and children) from the upcoming seven years of Tribulation. She recognized her own talents but didn't see them as gifts until her Pastor, Y. Hawkins-Bell, led her to the Bible scriptures concerning the Gifts from God (Romans 12: 6-18). Then, during the publishing process, the Staff at Xulon Christian Publishing referred to her writings as her book-ministry. Jacqueline looks forward to sharing many details of these End-Times with children readers, adults reading to children and Sunday School classes. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
