O. , 2006. LC Number: KF26 . H636 2006a OCLC Number: (OCoLC)75960397 Subject: Security clearances -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 ernments security clearance process, and Im sure that government contractors, whose applications for clearances were cut off three weeks ago, will agree. Todays hearing is on the progress made by the Office of Personnel Management (OMP), the Defense Security Services (DSS), and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) in attacking the backlog of security clearance applications since we started our oversight. In addition, we will also discuss the unilateral decision by DSS to stop accepting security clearance applications from contractors on April 28, 2006. I strongly believe this particular action illustrates the governments lack of stra-tegic vision to identify problems today that will create bottlenecks in Federal pro-grams in the future. Certainly I am pleased that DSS submitted its reprogramming request to Con-gress to transfer nearly 91 million to fund contractor applications for the remain-der of fiscal year 2006, in time for this hearing. However, its troubling that con-tractor applications were stopped even though there was money to fund the pro-gram, and DSS knew as early as January that additional funds were needed for the remainder of the fiscal year. I reviewed Mr. Rogalskis statement, and I was heartened by his candid admission that DSS has difficulties in forecasting funding and projecting clearance needs. I was also pleased to learn that DSS is taking immediate steps to address the inter-ruption in accepting contractor applications and is looking at long term solutions. However, had the...
